Foreword

As we, the staff of the SACANDAGAN, pass through the doors of M. C. S. for the last times, we wish to leave with you, the students and faculty, a token to remember our years at school. In later years, we and you may look back and recollect many of the pleasures that were gained through school days at our alma mater.

The class of 1965 is proud to publish this yearbook in dedication to Mr. Milan. Every member of our class has benefitted at some time from his patience, understanding and exceptional teaching abilities. He has become to us not only an outstanding instructor but a counselor and, most of all, a friend.

A p p r e c i a t i o n

The twenty-fifth graduating class of Mayfield Central School would like to express its deep appreciation to Mr. Sanford for his untiring assistance and patience. He has coached a championship baseball team for three consecutive years and due to his persistent efforts, the school gymnastic program has been greatly intensified. We, the Senior Class, would like to take this opportunity to express our appreciation to you, Mr. Sanford.

SENIORS

Senior Message

Through life, many experiences, acquaintances and places are forgotten or remembered. As the class of 1965 leaves Mayfield, pledges of eternal friendship and remembrances are frequent. It is doubtful that many, if any, of such are kept throughout later life. Our senior year has been a full one and one of ever lasting memories. May your senior year be as rewarding and unforgettable as was ours.

In Remembrance

As we look forward to the excitement of graduation, our hearts look back on the memories of two boys we left behind us in junior high. Our hearts were grieved then as they are now by their premature deaths. Although EMMETT HART and DAVID MARCAIS will be unseen by the audience, they will graduate with us, for they have remained in our thoughts as classmates and friends.

ACTIVITIES

And remember, no sitting on top of the desk.

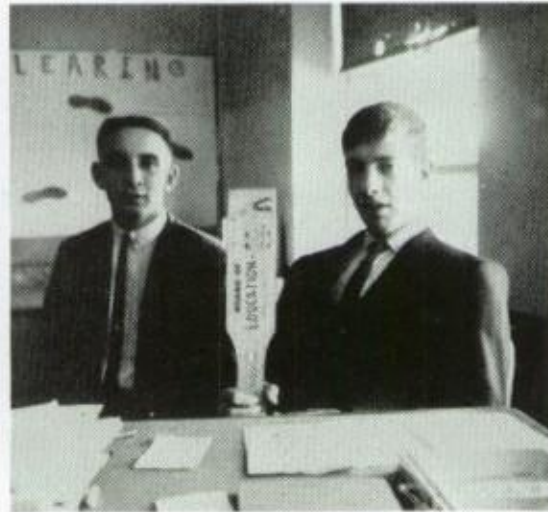

And I knew it yesterday.

M-I-C-, see you real soon!

Oi, oi, oi, ooi.

Anybody got any questions?

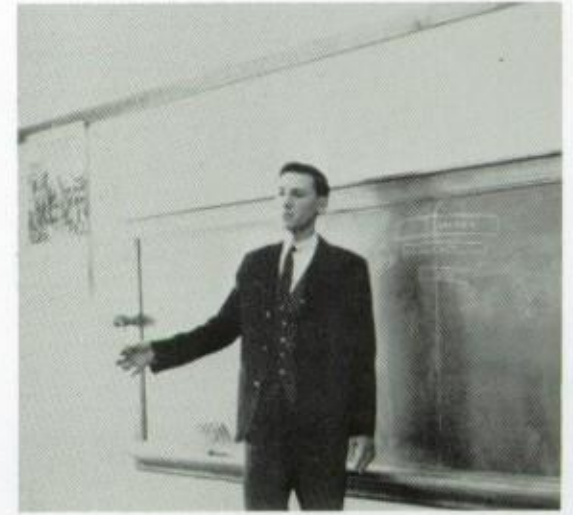

I think I'm going to be sick.

Do you want to settle this out here?

I can't find Riceville!

Oh solo mio!

That kid back there thinks he's wise!

Einstein was a nut!

I've never slapped so many kids in my life.

Day

They're all so small!

Peek-a-boo.

Let's get a Napoleon shot.

A teacher, I don't want to be.

How do I know where you came from?

Now all we need is a class.

There goes a kid out the window.

Ten more steps and I'll be out the door.

Because it's tee-ee-am work.

You gotta be kidding.

Ok, break up the poker game in the back.

And mama bear said to papa bear . . .

Student Council is one of the most active organizations in the school. It is the voice of the Student Body.

The Council does much to promote student interest in the school. It sponsors dances following basketball games, which are attended by many. It awards honor sweaters and pins to those students who are active in the various school activities. Annually, Christmas Bulletin Board Contests are held. The winner receives a sum of money from the Council.

In addition, we transact business, enforce rules and serve the classes in the case that any problem should arise.

National Honor Society

This past fall, as a result of the motivation of the new advisor, Mr. Milan, the Mayfield Chapter of the National Honor Society introduced senior inductions, so that the new inductees might benefit from the activities and privileges accorded to the members through this organization in their last year of high school. Sophomores and Juniors were inducted in the spring as usual.

Once again, we would like to congratulate all the new inductees for having gained one of the highest honors bestowed on a high school student.

The Little Red Schoolhouse

L-R: V. Billman, F. Goossen, C. Gifford, D. Rutkowski, Alternate - J. Horning.

Last spring, much honor was brought to Mayfield through the efforts of Mr. Slack and the members of the Little Red Schoolhouse Team. The money received from the five programs was donated to the Allen Brown Scholarship Fund. We would like to congratulate them all once again for a magnificent performance.

Soccer

This year the Panther's growl was not the roar of years before. The team had a campaign of ups and downs, winning five games and dropping five. This year's team showed a lot of hustle, but the scores didn't come as easy this season. The many new faces in this year's line-up promise successful seasons for the future.

Coach Parker, Managers: B. West and L. Parker

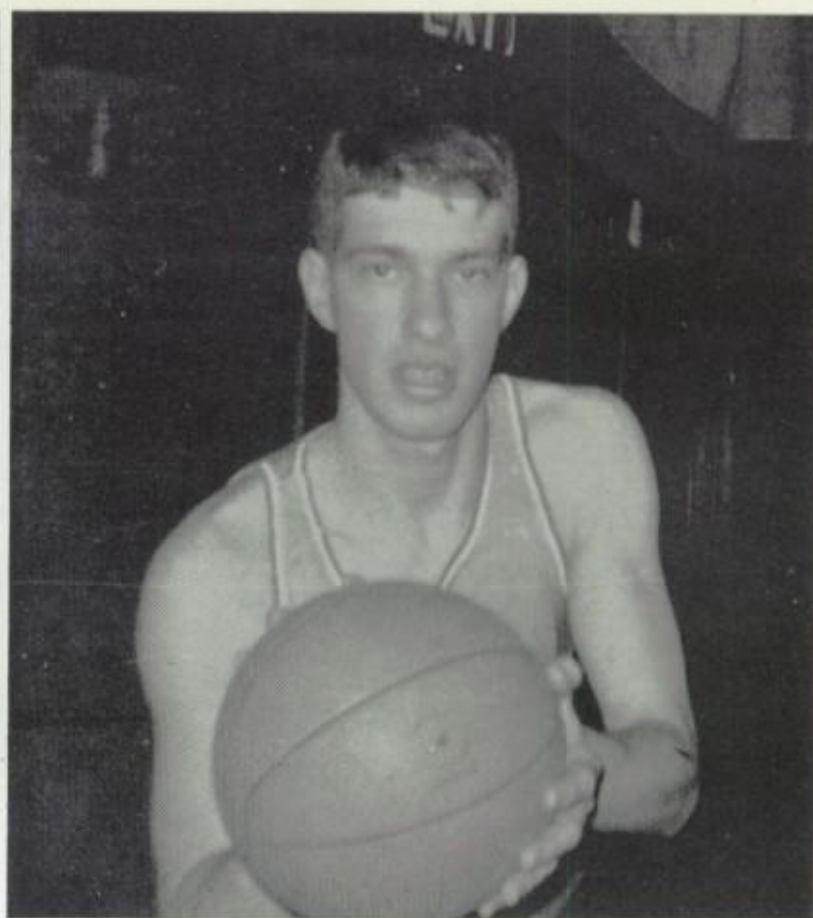

This season Mayfield Central put the largest Varsity Basketball team in its history in uniform. Many problems were to be encountered but the most outstanding was overall inexperience in the players themselves.

The inability to find a first string that could run up the points consecutively proved to be one of the pitfalls that faced us this season. Improving as the season moved along the Panthers came to the high point of the season which was the upset victory over Canajoharie on our floor. Although the victories were not too plentiful this season, the squad showed spirit and hustle all through the season.

The Mayfield nine successfully defended its Tri-Valley league baseball crown for the third straight season. The final statistics showed an impressive 15 wins against 4 losses. The key to the year's overall success was outstanding effort by each individual team member. Six players from this year's team will be lost through graduation. But, the new faces coming up from the Jayvee team and the returning players from last year's squad should build a strong unit for this year's competition. We hope this season will be as successful as the past season.

Best Friends)

Dear Deb,
I know that some day you will find happiness in your home. I hope that all your problems will be solved.

Love,
Randy

Deb,
I think you are one of the most nicest girls I've known. You are very polite and quiet, and has great respect for everyone. You don't find many girls like you these days - that are considerate of other people. I hope we can maintain our friendship.
Love ya -
Randy

Deb, Best of Luck
to a new year
and a friend always may you always have success in whatever you do. Remember the great times we had in 2009 and I hope you're luckier next year in getting someone better in front of you than you were this year.
Keep your sweet smile and warm personality and you'll go far.
Always -
Chris P.

Deb, Always remember the great beautiful trumpet player (Ha! Ha!) You a real sweet and cute gal and don't let anyone tell you different. You a good "Pal" of mine and you always will be.
Remember all the great times we've had together. (Cris)
